The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; and on the third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy! Our life, our sweetness, and our hope!
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley, of tears.

Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb Jesus;

O clement, O loving, O sweet virgin Mary.
Pray for us, O holy Mother of God
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but, in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen

Prayer in Trials

(To be said in great affliction, or when one seems to be deprived of all visible help, and for cases despaired of.)

Most holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered the beloved Master into the hands of His enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases, of things despaired of.

Pray for those who are so miserable; make use we implore you, of this particular privilege accorded to you, to bring visible and speedy help, where help is almost despaired of. In this great need, come to the aid of:

All those for whom we pray, that they may receive the consolations and succor of Heaven in all their necessities, tribulations and sufferings and pray Our Lord Jesus will grant they survive their cancer)... and that we may bless God with you and all the elect forever.

I promise you, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

May the most just, most high and most adorable Will of God be in all things done, praised and magnified forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Peregrine
(Patron Saint for those suffering with Cancer)

O great St. Peregrine, you have been called “The Mighty,” “The Wonder-Worker,” because of the numerous miracles which you have obtained from God for those who have had recourse to you.

For so many years you bore in your own flesh this cancerous disease that destroys the very fiber of our being, and who had recourse to the source of all grace when the power of man could do no more.

You were favored with the vision of Jesus coming down from His Cross to heal your affliction. Ask of God and Our Lady, the cure of the sick whom we entrust to you.

(Pause here and silently recall the names of the sick for whom you are praying)

Aided in this way by your powerful intercession, we shall sing to God, now and for all eternity, a song of gratitude for His great goodness and mercy. Amen

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, look upon us with your infinite kindness and receive our thanks for all the spiritual and temporal blessings that you bestow on each of us. We are mindful that because of the sin committed against You by our first parents in the Garden of Eden we no longer are perfect reflections of your image and likeness. Because of our human condition we suffer diseases of both mind and body. In your infinite kindness and mercy You have given us Your own Mother as Queen of Heaven and our Hope. We offer thanks for your gift of the Blessed Virgin Mary who intercedes for us as we pray for a cure of all cancer:

In Your kindness and mercy You give us skilled and dedicated doctors, scientists, and researchers who work hard in the pursuit of a cure for cancer. For their lives we thank You O Lord.

THE THIRTY DAYS' PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
In Honor of the Sacred Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ
(Optional Prayer)

(By the devout recital of this prayer for the above space of time, we may mercifully hope to obtain our lawful request. It is particularly recommended as a proper devotion for every day in Lent, and all Fridays throughout the year.)

EVER glorious and blessed Mary, Queen of virgins, Mother of mercy, hope and comfort of dejected and desolate souls, through that sword of sorrow which pierced thy tender heart, whilst thine only Son, Christ Jesus, our Lord, suffered death and ignominy on the cross; through that filial tenderness and pure love He had for thee, grieving in thy sorrows, whilst from His cross He recommended thee to the care and protection of His beloved disciple, St. John; take pity, I beseech thee, on my poverty and necessities; have compassion on my anxieties and cares; assist and comfort me in all my infirmities and miseries.

Thou art the mother of mercies, the sweet consolatrix and refuge of the needy and the orphan, of the desolate and the afflicted. Cast, therefore an eye of pity on a miserable, forlorn child of Eve, and hear my prayer, for since, in just punishment of my sins, I now find myself encompassed by a multitude of evils, and oppressed with much anguish of spirit, whither can I fly for more secure shelter, O amiable Mother of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, than under the wings of thy maternal protection?

Attend; therefore, I beseech thee, with an ear of pity and compassion, to my humble and earnest request. I ask it through the bowels of mercy of thy dear Son, through that love and condescension wherewith He embraced our nature, when, in compliance with the divine will, thou gavest thy consent; and whom, after the expiration of nine months, thou didst bring forth from thy chaste womb, to visit this world, and bless it with his presence. I ask it through the anguish of mind wherewith thy beloved Son, our dear Saviour, was overwhelmed on Mount Olivet, when He besought His eternal Father, to remove from Him, if possible, the bitter chalice of His future passion. I ask it through the threefold repetition of His prayers in the garden, whence afterward with sorrowful steps and mournful tears thou didst accompany Him to the doleful theatre of His death and sufferings.

I ask it through the stripes and sores of His virginal Flesh, occasioned by the cords and whips wherewith He was bound and scourged, when stripped of His seamless garment for which His executioners afterward cast lots. I ask it through the scoffs and ignominies by which He was insulted, the false accusations and unjust sentence by which He was condemned to death, and which He bore with heavenly patience. I ask it through his bitter tears and bloody sweat, His silence and resignation, His sadness and grief of heart. I ask it through the blood which trickled from His royal and sacred head when struck with the scepter of a reed and pierced with His crown of thorns. I ask it through the excruciating torments He suffered when His hands and feet were fastened with large nails to the tree of the cross.

Rosary of Life for Those with Cancer

I ask it through His vehement thirst and bitter potion of vinegar and gall. I ask it through His dereliction on the cross, when He exclaimed: "My God! My God! Why hast Thou forsaken Me?" I ask it through His mercy extended to the repentant thief; and through His recommending His precious Soul and Spirit into the hands of His eternal Father, before He expired, saying: "All is consummated."

I ask it through the Blood mixed with water, which issued from His sacred side when pierced with a lance, and whence a flood of grace and mercy has flowed to us. I ask it through His immaculate life, bitter passion, and ignominious death on the cross, at which nature itself was thrown into convulsions, by the bursting of rocks, rending of the veil of the temple, the earthquake and darkness of the sun and moon. I ask it through His descent into hell, where He comforted the saints of the Old Law with His presence, and led captivity captive.

I ask it through His glorious victory over death, when He arose again to life on the third day; and through the joy which His appearance for forty days after gave thee, His blessed Mother, His apostles, and the rest of His disciples, when in thine and their presence, He miraculously ascended into heaven. I ask it, through the grace of the Holy Ghost, infused into the hearts of His disciples, when He descended upon them in the form of fire tongues, and by which they were inspired with zeal in the conversion of the world, when they went to preach the Gospel. I ask it through the awful appearance of thy Son at the last dreadful day, when He shall come to judge the living and the dead, and destroy the world by fire.

I ask it through the compassion He bore thee in this life, and the ineffable joy thou didst feel at thine Assumption into heaven, where thou are eternally absorbed in the sweet contemplation of His divine perfections. O glorious and ever-blessed Virgin, comfort the heart of thy suppliant, by obtaining for me:

* The blessing of increased devotion to Holy Mary Mother of God, Mother most merciful, Healer of the sick, a cure of all cancer and that all for whom we pray will be cancer survivors. ****

And as I am persuaded, my Divine Savior doth honor thee as His beloved Mother, to whom He refuses nothing, because you ask nothing contrary to His honor, so let me speedily experience the efficacy of thy powerful intercession, according to the tenderness of thy maternal affection, and His filial living heart, Who mercifully granteth the request, and complieth with the desires of those that love and fear Him.

Wherefore, O most Blessed Virgin, besides the object of my present petition, and whatever else I may stand in need of, obtain for me also of thy dear Son, our Lord and our God, a lively faith, firm hope, perfect charity, true contrition of heart, a horror of sin, love of God and my neighbor, contempt of the world, patience to suffer affronts and ignominies: nay, even, if necessary, an opprobrious death itself, for love of thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Obtain likewise for me, O sacred Mother of God, perseverance in good works, performance of good resolutions, mortification of self-will, a pious conversation through life, and, at my last moments, strong and sincere repentance, accompanied by such a lively and attentive presence of mind, as may enable me worthily to receive the last sacraments of the Church, and die in thy friendship and favor. Lastly, obtain, I beseech thee, for the souls of my parents, brethren, relatives and benefactors, both living and dead, life everlasting. Amen.

* (Here mention or reflect on your lawful request, with the reservation of its being agreeable to the Will of God, Who sees whether it will contribute toward your spiritual good.)

Note: THE THIRTY DAYS' PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY was taken from The Marian Sunday Missal, compiled by Sylvester P. Juergens, S. M. Doctor of Sacred Theology, The Regina Press, New York, 1962.
